

BRIDGING GENERATIONS FOR SUSTAINABLE CHANGE

Empowering Youth. Respecting Elders. Shaping the Future

From Our Director – Sarah Edgar Lamba

“Our mission is clear – unite generations for sustainable change. Through programs like Smart Shule, SaveElders, and Imarika, we are building bridges, not just projects.

- SaveElders Tanzania
- 1000+ elders supported in health, mental well-being & livelihoods
- Youth volunteers creating intergenerational impact across Tanzania

- Smart Shule
- 200+ youth trained in digital, leadership & project skills
- In partnership with the Center for Project Innovation

- Imarika – Binti Jiongeze
- 50+ girls in Tunduru trained to make reusable pads
- Breaking menstrual taboos & building self-confidence

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT – Nasra, 23 (Dodoma)
 “An elder told me, ‘You brought me back to life.’ That moment gave me purpose. Volunteering isn’t giving time – it’s receiving meaning.”

WHAT’S COMING UP?

- Aug : Jiongeze Workshop
- Sept: SMART Youth Mentorship Circle Launch
- Oct : International Day of Older Persons – Community events, health checks & intergenerational storytelling

Quote of the Month

“When elders share wisdom and youth bring energy, communities thrive.”
